

Django Project

(Ecommerce website)

By Rohit Doyal

Data Structure of website

Pages

- Home page
- Cart page
- Checkout page

In this website

Unauthenticated user also can see all product .

he/she can add product to cart

And checkout page they need to fill their personal information for purchase the product

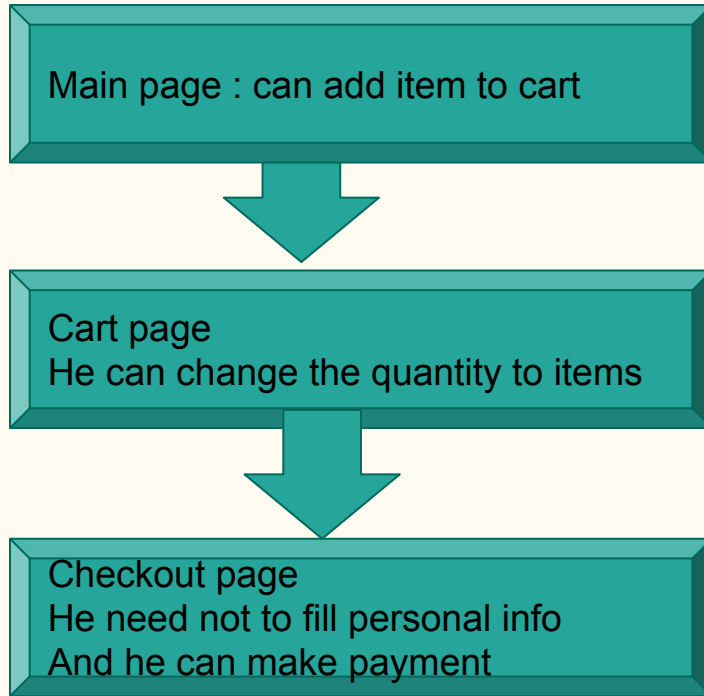

User is authenticated

- He can add item to cart
- In checkout page
- If product need shipping he need to fill address information .
- He can edit the element quantity connected to database .

User is not authenticated

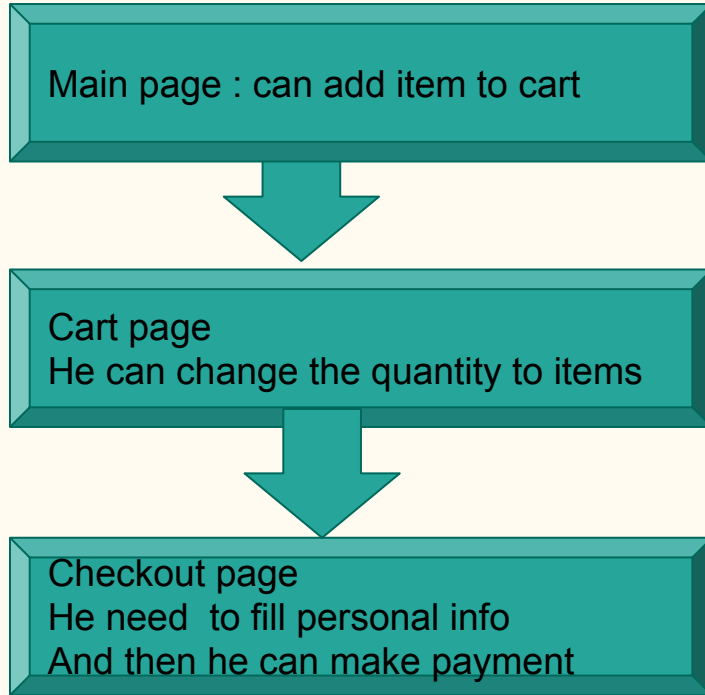

- He can also add item into cart
 - In checkout page he need to fill personal information also .
 - Javascript is handel the user's item quantity
-

User is authenticated

Django

User is not authenticated

Javascript to store the cookie

Cookies stored and at the end it save in database (python)

Thanks

